

The curse of Neptune's pearl

11 0 1

Chapter 1 by Ethan

Mc'guiver the diver jumped into lake This-Is-An-Inconspicuous-Lake, fully aware that there was a man eating half donkey killer whale thirsty for blood. His crew watched him nervously from the shore with there anti-donkey spray, though Mc'guiver would be the only one needing it. Then he saw it, the galloping donkey with a fish tail that had blood stained teeth. He knew the end was nigh, but he took out his only defense. Kool-Aid. He threw the bottle to his left, the "Donwhale" swam after it. He swam to the bottom, and there it was, the glowing pearl of Neptune. It looked unnatural, much like Taco-Bell or gas station shrimp.
